ONLINE INTRODUCTION TO INTERVENERS – RESOURCE LIST

The Intervener page of the Selected Topics section of the website of the National Consortium on Deaf-Blindness (NCDB). This page includes NCDB products, print materials from state deaf-blind projects, Internet resources, and video/audio files.
http://nationaldb.org/ISSelectedTopics.php?topicCatID=10

The Intervener in Early Intervention and Educational Settings for Children and Youth with Deafblindness, by Linda Alsop, Robbie Blaha, and Eric Kloos. A briefing paper published in 2000 by the National Technical Assistance Consortium (now the National Consortium on Deaf-Blindness).

Winter 2006 issue of the California Deaf-Blind Services' newsletter reSources with the theme: Interveners and Natural Supports. Available in English and Spanish. Articles include:
- The Intervener: Big Idea, Substantial Results
- It's Only Natural: The Use of Interveners and Natural Supports for Learners with Deaf-blindness
- Interveners Sharing Their Strategies: Amy Hernandez, Brian Oey, Casey Muehlig
- Things to Remember When Requesting an Intervener for Your Child (English and Spanish fact sheets)
http://www.cadbs.org/newsletter/

Two online intervener training programs:
Utah State University in Logan, Utah (Contact: Linda Alsop)
East Carolina University in Greenville, North Carolina (contact Dr. Alana Zambone)